

Social Networks Readiness Assessment Checklist

1. Does your organization have an existing HIV counseling and testing program? Yes No

If no, how do you plan to provide counseling and testing services?

2. Does your organization have expertise in working with the designated target population? Yes No

If no, how do you plan to access the target population?

3. Does your organization have staff with expertise in interviewing, counseling, testing, outreach, data collection, coordination, project management? Yes No

If no, how do you plan to obtain staff with this expertise?

4. Does your organization have access to HIV-positive persons who may serve as potential recruiters? Yes No

If no, how do you plan to access HIV-positive persons?

5. Does your organization offer a variety of HIV prevention services? Yes No

If not, do you have a referral relationship with other agencies that offer these services?

6. Does your organization offer medical care services for HIV-positive clients? Yes No

If not, do you have a referral relationship with other agencies that offer these services?

7. Does your organization currently have referral tracking systems in place?

Yes No

If not, do you have the expertise to develop and implement a referral tracking system?

8. Does your organization have resources to provide incentives to clients?

Yes No

If not, do you plan to use incentives? How do you plan to obtain resources?

9. * Does your organization have a collaborative relationship with your local/state health department?

Yes No

If not, how do you plan to develop this relationship?

* For CBOs or other CTR programs not based in a health department.