

Position AnnouncementTennessee Department of Health: Deputy Medical Director, HIV/STD/Viral Hepatitis

This position will serve as the Deputy Medical Director of the HIV/STD/Viral Hepatitis Section. The Deputy Medical Director will oversee statewide public health initiatives aimed at improving the prevention and treatment of sexually transmitted diseases in Tennessee, and augmenting and improving HIV and HCV treatment capacity among safety net providers throughout Tennessee. This position will guide policy development and program implementation through clinical and programmatic oversight. This position is in the Physician job class, requires advanced management and leadership skills, and is an executive service position.

CVs should be sent to Donna Teasley, Personnel Officer, at donna.teasley@tn.gov